The story leading up to the crime Wednesday last, when Mrs. Hudson appeared upon the scene and swore out a warrant before Justice Trader against Hudson for non-support and desertion. He was held under $250 bail for his appearance before the justice on or befor September 21, if, in the meantime, he had not taken up his duties as husband and supported his wife.

He paid the fine in cash. It was be-lieved that this was the end of the matter, as Hudson had agreed to return to his former home in Cambridge as scon as he had finished his business in falis-bury. This satisfied the wife, but the climax came, as it now appears Tl urs-day night when she heard that he was teachers—Preparatory and Academic Departments. Music, Languages, Art.
